River News.

The river is about on a stand at this point.

The Oneida passed down yesterday with a small tow of coal. She left one barge of the "black diamonds" here.

The expected rise at Pittsburg had failed to materialize late Saturday night. The heavy rain yesterday may help it along.

The Louis A. Sherley, for Portsmouth, and Benton McMillen, for Pomeroy, passed up Saturday night. The Sherley will pass down to-night.

CALIFORNIA dried and canned fruit, at Calhoun's.

At Catlettsburg, John Hamilton has been ordered sold for vagrancy.

Boyd County has lately added two new convicts to the number already in the "pen."

WASH HINES and Phoenix Hord, a colored couple, have been granted marriage license.

WILLIAM BRUNS, a milliner, of Catlettsburg, has failed for about $2,000. Assets not known.

ABOUT the usual number of Maysville folks are attending County Court to-day at Flemingsburg.

LINNEA F. Pico and Susan M. Redmon, both of this county, were married yesterday near Springdale.

HON. W. H. WADSWORTH left this morning to attend the trial of Thomas M. Green at Lexington.

Mr. Charles Phister spent a few days at Poplar Plains last week and was delighted with his visit.

THE recent meeting in which Rev. Russell Cecil assisted at the Augusta Presbyterian Church resulted in eight additions.

RILEY KEHRANS was convicted Friday in the Fleming Circuit Court of violating the prohibition law of that county and fined $100.

THE protracted meeting in the Baptist Church at Versailles, conducted by Rev. H. M. Wharton, of Baltimore, closed with twenty-five additions.

THERE have been over twelve additions to the Broadway Christian Church at Lexington during a meeting now being held by Elder C. P. Williamson.

JAMES MCKNIGHT LAYTON and wife and Perry L. Boyd and wife have sold and conveyed to Louis C. Brainerd their interest in fifty-one acres of land for $14.40.

THE diamond spectacle being entirely free from any injurious substances, can be used equally well by day light or lamp light. For sale by Ballenger, the jeweler.

NICHOLAS HENNESSY, an old employe on the Kentucky Central, was fatally injured in the yards at Covington, by being caught between some cars. His back was broken.

CIRCUIT CLERK BEN D. PERRY, who accompanied his daughter Mrs. Bettie Welch as far as Cincinnati en route to her home at St. Joseph, Mo., returned Saturday night.

PRESTON LONG, colored, whom Sallie Jordan had jailed last County Court day, on a charge of bastardy took the insolvent debtor's oath Saturday and was released from custody.

CHARLES MCCARTHEY, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. McCarthey, is laid up with a badly sprained ankle. He met with the accident Friday evening while wrestling with one of his companions, at Daulton's livery stable.

JAMES SCOTT TRUE died a few days ago at Helena. His remains were interred at Dover. He married a Miss Gaither on the 28th of October, and was taken down with typhoid fever the next day, the disease resulting in his death.

COLONEL FRANK S. OWENS is at home again after spending a week among the "Adirondacks" of Eastern Kentucky, where he has been wooing the pike and the bass with that seductive power possessed by but few since the days of Isaac Walton.

MAJOR W. H. MEANS is starting through Indiana in a heavy comedy written expressly for him by Nelson, of Boston, entitled "Boots and Shoes for Indiana Feet," in two parts—sole and upper. Major "does" the villain, and is playing to big money.

HENRY BROWN, who was accidentally shot in the right leg last Saturday morning at Wallingford's grocery, is doing as well as could be expected. He will be disabled some time. Mr. Brown is a cooper by trade. He has a wife and a large family of young children.

RAMSEY CAPTURED.

Ewing's Assailant Arrested at Ripley and Now in Custody Awaiting Trial.

Charles Ramsey, who attempted to kill George Ewing last Thursday evening, was captured early Saturday morning at his mother's residence in Ripley. The arrest was made by Marshall Hefflin, who brought his man back to this city, where he will be held to answer the charge of shooting and wounding with intent to kill. Those who are acquainted with the facts say Ramsey is almost certain of another term in the penitentiary. He claims, however, that he did the shooting in self-defense—that Ewing first shot at him.

It is ascertained that Ramsey crossed the river after the shooting, and spent Thursday night with a negro family, who lives a mile or so below Aberdeen. Some of his friends must have known where he could be found, as a woman crossed over to see him the next morning. Ramsey brought this woman back to the Kentucky side late Friday evening, and then left for Ripley. Captain Hefflin, who had been on the watch, soon caught on to Ramsey's movements, and in company with Wm. Stockdale and two or three others, he got a skiff and started in pursuit. The officer and his party arrived at Ripley about midnight. Ramsey was soon afterwards located at the home of his mother, and the arrest was effected about 1 o'clock Saturday morning.

Ramsey's examining trial will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock before Mayor Pearce.

Mysteriously Missing.

A special from Ripley says Samuel Hiatt, whose home is between Dover and Minerva, has been mysteriously missing since Monday, November 21st. On that day Hiatt was at Ripley where he purchased several small packages of goods. He filled up on bad whisky and in the afternoon he was placed on the steamer Hattie Brown to be taken to Dover. He was drunk and this was the last seen of him. He had $60 in his pockets when he disappeared. It is thought he fell off the boat and was drowned.

Phister-Johnson.

Mr. Walter Bell Phister and bride arrived Saturday evening on a short visit to his parents and other relatives.

A special, dated November 16th, from Newburyport, Mass., to the Boston Journal, gives the following account of their nuptials: "At the family mansion on Ocean avenue, Newburyport, at 5 o'clock this afternoon, Miss Elizabeth Lisenard Johnson and Mr. Walter Bell Phister, of Kansas City, Mo., were united in marriage by the Rev. J. H. Van Buran, rector of St. Paul's Church, Newburyport, the ritual of the Episcopal Church being rendered very impressively on the occasion. The bride is the youngest daughter of William C. and Mary C. Johnson, of Newburyport, and a great-granddaughter of John Adams, second President of the United States, and is a very brilliant and highly cultivated young lady. The groom is the son of Mr. Charles Phister, of Maysville, Ky., and is the head of the banking firm of Phister & Crittenden, Kansas City.

"The bride wore a dress of heavy white moire antique silk, full court train, with pearl trimming, orange blossoms and white lilies, on the corsage and side of the skirt. The veil worn is an heirloom in the Johnson family and of costly point lace. The lady attendant was Miss Abigail Adams Johnson, sister of the bride, and the best man Mr. Milton S. Thompson, of Islip, L. I. The ceremony was performed in the large west parlor, upon the walls of which hang the portraits of the Adams family of several generations. The house was decorated with palms, choice plants and chrysanthemums very elaborately. The presents were very costly and numerous, comprising in part a silver service from the parents of the bride, also ladles, salvers, spoons, forks, numbering thirty-five sets, costly jewelry, a gorgeous ostrich feather fan, paintings, statuary &c. The newly wedded pair left on the 8:15 p. m. train for New York, visiting Washington and other cities en route for their future home, bearing with them the fond wishes of a large circle of friends of the bride, while the greetings of the kindred and friends of the groom will be heartily extended to them upon their arrival at their future residence."

A Wonderful Freak of Nature

is sometimes exhibited in our public exhibitions. When we gaze upon some of the peculiar freaks nature occasionally indulges in, our minds revert back to the creation of man, "who is so fearfully and wonderfully made." The mysteries of his nature have been unraveled by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, and through his knowledge of those mysteries he has been able to prepare his "Golden Medical Discovery," which is a specific for all blood taints, poisons and humors, such as scrofula, pimples, blotches, eruptions, swellings, tumors, ulcers and kindred affections. CONTRACTORS IN TROUBLE.

Resorting to the "Strong Arm of the Law" to Secure Pay for Work Done on the New Railroad.

Some of the sub-contractors on the Maysville & Big Sandy Railroad are having trouble over the pay for their work, and have resorted to the courts to secure their claims.

A few days ago five suits were filed in the Mason Circuit Court against one Thomas Croghan. The plaintiffs are W. G. Bullock, L. B. Baird, Baird & Ford, E. R. Adams and Isaac J. Evans, all of whom are residents of Lewis County, or are living there temporarily. The defendant Croghan resides at Charleston, W. Va.

It seems that Croghan was awarded the contract a few months ago to furnish ballast for several miles of the new road between this point and Ashland. He sub-let the work to a number of parties among whom are the plaintiffs above mentioned. Mr. Bullock was awarded a half mile of the work and Mr. Baird three miles. Other portions of the work were sub-let to Messrs. Baird & Ford, E. R. Adams and Isaac J. Evans. The work was to be done and the ballast furnished in accordance with specifications made by the "Contracting and Building Company."

Some of the plaintiffs claim that estimates were made on October 31st of the work then done, and that Croghan took the estimates and drew the money, but failed to settle with them. The amounts claimed are as follows:

L. B. Baird sues for.....	$1,707 06
W. G. Bullock sues for.....	270 16
Baird & Ford sues for.....	537 76
E. R. Adams sues for.....	76 00
Isaac J. Evans sues for.....	241 50
Total.....	$2,932 48

At the time the suits were filed Croghan had disappeared and his whereabouts were then unknown to the plaintiffs. They accordingly swore out attachments against him.

In justice to Mr. Croghan it is necessary to add that since the suits were filed he has telegraphed, we are informed, from Charleston, W. Va., that he would return soon and have the trouble between himself and the plaintiffs adjusted.

JAMES MOLEN, an employe of the James H. Hall Plow Company, was partially paralyzed on the right side last Saturday. He was removed to his home on Lee street and was doing well at last accounts.

A PARTRIDGE was brought into town the other day that had a bright yellow breast, and on its head yellow streaks to match. The flesh of the bird was dark, thus seeming to indicate that it was a cross with some other species—probably a yellow-hammer—rather than a natural freak.—Ripley Bee.

A MARRIAGE license was granted Saturday to Judge James Kenton, of Mount Olivet, and Mrs. Martha E. Morford, of Shannon. The wedding will take place next Thursday, as previously announced, at the residence of Mr. John Cole. It is the second matrimonial venture of each of the contracting parties.

THE cantata, "Queen of Fame," will be given at opera house next Friday night. General admission, 50 cents; balcony, 35 cents; gallery, 25 cents. An orchestra of fifteen pieces will furnish music. The entertainment will be given for the benefit of Hauck's Reed and Brass Band and Mrs. Oton, and should be largely attended.

GOVERNOR BUCKNER has remitted the fine of $10 each, assessed against William and Wallace Chappell, Thomas Tuggle and Dick Gaither, of Lewisburg, at the last term of the Circuit Court for removing or damaging a toll-gate in that neighborhood. The accused acted under the advice of some of the county authorities in doing what they did.

THE track of the Maysville & Big Sandy Railroad has been laid a point near Concord, from this end of the line. The construction train has about reached Sycamore Creek, where a little delay will be caused by the erection of the bridge. The train working down the river from Greenup will reach Tygart's Creek in a day or so. In all about half the track between Maysville and Ashland has been laid.

A SPECIAL from Flemingsburg says that Drum Payne, a somewhat notorious character, was ambushed near Mount Pisgah, Fleming County, late Thursday evening and riddled with buckshot. His condition is critical. The matter was kept a profound secret, and only leaked out Saturday through a garrulous witness who was before the grand jury, which is investigating the case. Payne was implicated in the killing of a negro woman between Cynthiana and Falmouth a short time ago. It is thought that Payne cannot survive.

Mayslick Double Wedding Notes.

We wouldn't be surprised if the Thanksgiving wedding should get up a boom in the matrimonial market at this point.

Four reporters were busy with their pencils and five preachers were in attendance at the double wedding—Rev. Messrs. Cody, Widger, Spears and the officiating clergy.

Our brethren of the Christian Church, if many more of their dear girls go a marrying, will have to build a new temple with all modern accessories. The present building they insist is not adapted to bridal parties. It must go.

Among the many handsome ladies in attendance at the double wedding none attracted more attention than Miss Mollie Knight, of Millersburg. She was compassed about by editors, reporters and gallant bachelors and widowers, eager for her smiles of recognition.

Several of our young ladies and pretty widows vow that they will have no other than Brother Williamson to crown them at the altar, matrimonial. He ties the double-bow knot so charmingly that they can scarcely realize that they have passed from the "still waters and green pastures" of maidenhood to the blissful delights of wedded paradise.

The Thanksgiving sermon pronounced immediately after the double wedding by Elder C. P. Williamson, of Richmond, is spoken of by those who heard it as a graceful and beautiful tribute to the Governor's Sabbath, fitting and appropriate in every respect. The singing was very fine, and Miss Lizzie Parry seemed to give the organ a sweeter touch than usual, and Brother Widger's bass couldn't be beaten.

Notice.

The members of the Democratic Executive Committee for Mason County are requested to meet at the law office of Whitaker & Robertson in the city of Maysville on Monday, the 12th day of December next. A full attendance is requested, as business of importance will come before it for action. Respectfully,
EMERY WHITAKER,
Ch'm'n Executive Committee Mason Co.

Personal.

Mr. E. L. Rogers, of Cincinnati, Private Secretary to Hon. W. T. Bishop, spent Thanksgiving day in Maysville as the guest of Miss Alice Higginbotham, of Sutton street.

$500 Not Called For.

It seems strange that it is necessary to persuade men that you can cure their diseases by offering a premium to the man who fails to receive benefit. And yet Dr. Sage undoubtedly cured thousands of cases of obstinate catarrh with his "Catarrh Remedy," who would never have applied to him if it had not been for his offer of the above sum for an incurable case. Who is the next bidder for cure or cash?
